Multiple websites with global access for set peopl

Posted by aeonweb - 2010/06/24 23:52

_____

This looks like a good product, but could it handle this - say we have a master website and the slaves. Each slave for example is for a client so they have access to this website admin only, but a global administrator would have access to every website? ie certain users get full access to every site every else can only access the site they've registered on? Thanks! :)

==========