I understand you can't share this component, but can the AutoTweet component be installed on each individual site independently?

Thanks,

Tony

Can you send us the extension "AutoTweet" in the attachement of an email to allow us reviewing this extension that we don't know yet.
Our email is present in contact us

Edwin,

I just noticed your reply a couple of days ago, so sorry it took so long, I sent a email to you with the com-autotweet attached. Thanks in advance for your time.

Tony
